Felon Arrested Following Standoff Charged in Domestic Violence Case

A felon arrested on Monday following an hours-long standoff is awaiting arraignment today for making criminal threats against an ex-girlfriend, the Los Angeles County District Attorney's Office announced.

Nolan Perez (dob 4/22/73) is scheduled to be arraigned sometime today at the Foltz Criminal Justice Center in Department 30. Prosecutors will ask that his bail be set at $495,000.

Perez is charged in case BA425858 with one count of stalking and six counts of making criminal threats. The complaint alleges Perez has multiple prior convictions, including domestic violence in 2011, ex-felon with a gun in 2007 and negligent discharge of a firearm in 1997.

The complaint charges Perez with making a series of criminal threats against a woman beginning May 19 and continuing through June 1.

Perez was arrested Monday afternoon after he allegedly led police on a car chase then ran inside a North Hollywood residence.

Deputy District Attorney Lisa Kassabian with the Family Violence Division is prosecuting the case.

The Los Angeles Police Department is investigating the case.
